As I wrote in my last letter, the area is a significant base for what is left of the Antifa militia as well as other hired soldiers or rebels still (seemingly) loyal to Ahriman and his Great Social Reset Dream.

Not sure that I mentioned that these new WEF warlords claim to be fighting the growing threat of the Republic of Texas (ROT) encroachment of the authority of the new government in Tulsa.

Local people would beg to differ on this point but, have little say in the discussion on the reimposing of "WEF cultural monotheism" in the form of their strict enforced by the Ahriman New Social Order.

This has reintroduced the "You're going to have Nothing and be Happy!" dogma back onto these ancient peoples. These newly established WEF leaders no longer reside in Poplar Bluff.

They have relocated their operational hub to a hot springs resort located approximately three kilometers away from the village center.

I've heard from several locals that the WEF members are having a good time in their 21st century enclosure, which is being heavily guarded by the Antifa Militia Rangers.

In their story, the locals express their bitter disappointment that Tulsa-area officials first resorted

It appears that once Ahriman and his "you'll have nothing" group departed, the individuals at WEF foolishly reverted back to the most extreme version of their past fanatic capitalism. The insatiable greed of "only a
